

Ministry Update

A Look Back at September, 2021

Hello Ministry Friends,

We are thrilled to share that Denise Viscuso has recently transitioned to a newly developed role at Love INC as our first Education Coordinator. Denise has been a faithful volunteer at Love INC for the past 10 years, serving our ministry well, previously as Volunteer Coordinator, and continues to be a vital part of our ministry. Her gift and passion for teaching combined with her deep understanding of the Love INC ministry model make her a perfect fit for this position. As Education Coordinator, Denise oversees the development of training materials and conducts courses and trainings for Love INC staff, volunteers, partners, and the community. We are so excited for this next season at Love INC!

If your church or organization is interested in more information about Love INC trainings, please contact Denise at dviscuso@loveincbrevard.com.

Featured Client: Over the last year, Love INC has come alongside a single mom of three, one with special needs, as she has faced financial difficulties from the impact of Covid on her employment. We have been able to assist her in various ways thanks to your donations to Love INC's Covid fund. She is now part of a church community, has moved into a larger home, and recently purchased a car through our auto purchase program. Her hours at her job have increased and her next step is Love INC's budget mentoring course. She is well on her way to sustainability in all areas!
